The Center for Liturgy Sunday Website

<http://liturgy.slu.edu>

Announcing a new, innovative web site designed to prepare for the Sunday Liturgy from Saint Louis University's Center for Liturgy. The site is for everyone from Priest to people in the pews. It gives you easy access to the readings for Sunday, and then lets you enter into them in a way that fits you.

1. Praying Toward Sunday features a short but deep prayer on each reading;
2. Spirituality for Sunday gives you excellent spiritual insights into the Sunday, its readings, its meaning;
3. Get to know the Readings has insights by various authors into the meaning of the coming Sunday's scripture; and,
4. Music of Sunday's Mass takes a look at diverse parishes through the country and world, listing what music they will be using.

Spend as much time as you want in the site, from two minutes to two hours. It is a great resource for you (and also for group meetings in the parish). This preparation will enable all of us to better participate in the Sunday Liturgy.
